

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., June 22, 1885.

Sir:

Enclosed find draft for one hundred dollars on the Assistant Treasurer at New York, your letter of the 10th instant to the Exchange National Bank of Kansas and the correspondence in reference thereto.

In examining your cashier's statement for the 18th instant I find he reports $35,085 in one-cent pieces. The circular of the 16th of February last gives notice that the issue of minor coins will be discontinued "when the present supply
 "of such coins at the U. S. Mint at Philadelphia "is exhausted." Why cannot this order be filled from the one-cent coins you have on hand? If not, please return the papers with your reply.

Very respectfully,
Horatio G. Brown,

Director

A. London Snowden, Esq., Superintendent Mint,
Philadelphia.

541
D.W.S.

Washington D.C.
June 22 85.

Burchard -

Enclosed draft for $100 & request order to be filled to Exchange Nat. Bank of Kansas -

[Abstract:] Encloses dft. for $100 & requests order...

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
June 22, 1885

Sir:

Enclosed find draft for one hundred dollars on the Assistant Treasurer at New York, your letter of the 10th instant to the Exchange National Bank of Kansas and the correspondence in reference thereto.

In examining your Cashier's statement for the 18th instant I find he reports $35,085 in one-cent pieces. The circular of the 16th of February last gives notice that the issue of minor coins will be discontinued "when the present supply of such coins at the U.S. Mint at Philadelphia is exhausted". Why cannot this order be filled from the one-cent coins you have on hand? If not, please return the papers with your reply.

Very respectfully,
Horatio C. Burchard
Director

A. Loudon Snowden, Esq., Superintendent Mint, Philadelphia.